

VITALIS Internship Gardening

For students of:

- Forestry
- Gardening
- Agriculture
- Botanic

Learning Outcomes

- How soils and substrates are composed and how to use them
- Identify plants, assess their quality and use plant catalogues or cultivation instructions
- How to care for, use and maintain machines, equipment, tools and structural installations
- Detect damage to plants and carry out plant protection measures, harvesting and using plants and plant products
- Transfer execution and planting plans to the building site, dig and secure trenches and pits and how to lay drainage pipes
- Build water installations, especially ponds, basins or watercourses, prepare sites for plants and carry out planting

Focal Points and Tasks

- Preparing and planning work, procuring materials, setting up construction sites
- Taking measurements of machining areas according to drawings and plans and delimiting the areas
- Working, transporting, maintaining and renovating floors
- Laying out lawns, planting perennials, shrubs, flowers and trees, digging up trees, perennials and other plants, cutting them in, cutting down trees, clearing stumps
- Set up seating, sports and play equipment, building fences, pergolas and screens, fortifying paths and squares, building walls and stairs, water basins, excavating and sealing water bodies, creating banks

Info and contact: projects@gutwehlitz.com | +49 34 204 77 40 00