

VITALIS Internship Health Care

For students of:

- Nursing
- Health Care
- Elderly/
• Senior Care

Learning Outcomes

- The physical, psychological and social changes take place in old age, age-related clinical diagnoses
- Care for the elderly in a person and situation related way, i.e. depending on the degree of need for care; support in their lifestyle, care of people in complete need
- How the care process is planned and documented
- Participate in the treatment and rehabilitation of sick and elderly people with disabilities, including the implementation of medical prescriptions
- Which problem situations typical of the profession, e.g. caring as a professional activity in the private sphere of strangers, dealing with mentally disturbed elderly people, what role family relationships and social bonds can play

Focal Points and Tasks

- Theoretical principles of nursing care, care planning, care processes and SOPs, care documentation
- Care in special life and need situations
- Participation in the implementation of medical prescriptions
- Participation in geriatric and gerontopsychiatric concepts
- Handling of prostheses and other aids
- Lifeworlds and social networks of older people, living space and living environment
- Daily schedule and self-organised activities

Info and contact: projects@gutwehlitz.com | +49 34 204 77 40 00